Our values: quality, ethics and integrity

Our culture is first and foremost based on ethics. We place integrity, dedication and rigour in our advisor role above everything. The quality of interpersonal relationships is our core value. We believe in teamwork with a strong implication of our partners, in a spirit of collaboration, in respect and personal growth and in developing competences.

Our objective: in-depth analysis for a more informed decision

We help clients to analyse their options and make the best decisions for their activities with the highest degree of security and confidence. We offer multi-disciplinary, objective and independent assistance in the complex matters of economics and finance

Our presence: a national group linked to an international network

Our team of over 135 workers is divided between five locations within the country's three regions. We are the Belgian member of RSM International, which is the seventh largest global network of independent auditing firms, providing accounting expertise and advice in over 70 countries worldwide.

Our references:

Over 2,500 private enterprises and public organisations use our services. We have extensive experience with rapidly growing, large, national and international SMEs, listed or unlisted large companies, businesses with private and family. We have also developed expertise to meet the needs of the voluntary and non-profit sectors – hospitals, mutual insurances, inter-municipal organisations, public organisations and institutions, professional associations, non-profit-making organisations and cooperatives.
